THE MOST CONSEQUENTIAL WEEK

MESSAGE FROM PASTOR

*1 Corinthians 15:3-4
Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, 4 that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.*

A search engine query for “This Day In History” produces information about significant events for a particular day in history. The results often remind us of how many important dates we forget simply because they lie in the past. We must not let this happen to us over this Easter week. This week is the most consequential week in human history. Nearly 2000 years ago three seismic events rocked human history with eternal implications, although most of the witnesses barely realized what was unfolding before their eyes.

On Sunday, Jesus Christ rode into Jerusalem on a donkey and offered Himself as Israel’s sovereign King. The jubilant crowd welcomed Him with songs and adulation, but less than a week later they soured on Him and (instigated by their religious leaders) demanded His execution. This offering of Jesus as Israel’s Messiah was the first critical event and catalyzed the next two. Unbeknownst to the Jews, their rejection of their legitimate King set in motion the next phase of God’s eternal plan.

By Friday, after a week of challenging actions and teachings, Jesus was arrested, tried before a kangaroo court, and summarily crucified. This apparent miscarriage of justice was the second seismic event. Jesus wasn’t victimized by wicked men: He voluntarily offered His life for the sins of all mankind (John 10:18). By so doing He paid mankind’s greatest debt. The sinless Son of God took upon Himself the sin of the entire world and carried the bitter load to Calvary. On that day, as He hung on the cross, He took God the Father’s full, unmitigated punishment for humanity’s sin, thus paving the way for us to be forgiven of our sin. After His death Jesus was taken from the cross by heartbroken friends and buried in a nearby tomb.

But on Sunday the greatest event of all time occurred. Jesus rose triumphantly from the dead as our Living Savior! His resurrection demonstrates that His death was a sufficient payment for our sins and that God the Father fully accepted it. It proves that Jesus is indeed God the Son, and the Savior of the world. He lives forever as the Conqueror of sin and death.

It is because of this consequential week in history that we no longer have to live under the dread and fear of sin. Jesus died for us. Was buried for us. Rose triumphantly for us. We can have full forgiveness of all our sins and can live with the certain hope that one day we will live with Him forever in perfect bliss.

Have you personally accepted the benefits of this consequential week? Have you trusted Christ as your Savior? Are you living in joyful communion with God?

God bless you,
Pastor James
