MESSAGE FROM PASTOR

Search Me

*Psalm 139:23-24
Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts! And see if there be any grievous way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting!*

I do not like being searched.

I remember with distaste the many times my luggage was searched when I was clearing customs at various airports. While I understand the necessity of these procedures and I know I am not transporting any contraband, I do not like the idea of strangers going through my personal stuff.

Luggage searches are bad enough, but I especially do not like enduring physical searches.

Even though most times, these are just quick patting downs, I do not like strangers touching me all over my body. I believe most of you are like me in this area.

Yet, as believers, we need to frequently ask the Lord to search us. God already searches us, as David frankly admits in the first few verses of this Psalm (verses 1-6), but that search can feel to us like an invasion of our privacy.

But after thinking through God's amazing power and plan in creating Him (verses 7-16), and recognizing God's great love for him (verses 17-18), David begs God to search him thoroughly. He is aware that as much as he despises the wicked and their wickedness (verses 19-22), it is possible that he himself has some wickedness lurking in his heart – hiding in the shadows. That awareness leads him to voluntarily submit himself to the all-seeing, searching gaze of his God and Savior. He longs for God to uncover and purge him of any wicked ways, and lead him in the right path.

We today need to develop the same perspective, and utter the same prayer. We are prone to miss the attitudes, thoughts and prejudices hiding in our hearts that corrupt our relationships with each other, and our walk with God. We need to acknowledge God's vested, gracious interest in us and open ourselves up to Him so He can examine, convict and change us.

May God help each of us today to honestly pray: "Search me, O God."

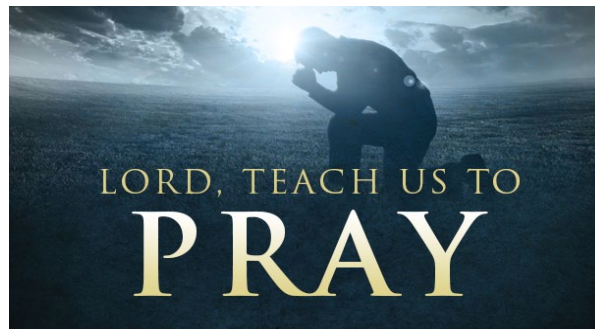

God bless you, Pastor James
